Sullivan, Cornelius Joseph

[61 Broadway, NYC], 1919

March 7th, 1919.

Mr. Cornelius J. Sullivan,
61 Broadway,
New York.

Dear Sir:-

I am informed that you had in charge the arrangement for the publication of the medal given by Mr. John D. Rockefeller as a prize in the Golf Tournament, the proceeds of which should go for the benefit of the Red Cross (?).

At the Museum of this Society at Broadway & 156th Street, we make an effort to secure as complete a record of things of this sort as is possible. May I ask whether it would be possible for you to present such a medal to our collection in order that we may have a record of this highly successful plan.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of the 10th accompanied by one of the Foch Victory Golf Medals arrived this morning. Thank you very much. It will shortly be placed in our recent accessions case where I am sure it will attract the attention it deserves. Permit me to express my appreciation of your kindness in presenting this medal.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.
